

Morton Rubric for Tutorial Request Form

1	2	2.5	3	3.5	4
All basic boxes filled in.	Everything for a 1 plus all proficient boxes filled in.	Everything for a 2 plus your 3 column notes taken during tutorials.	Everything for a 2.5 plus reflections and resources.	Everything for a 3 plus higher level reflections and collaborative inquiry.	Everything for a 3.5 plus higher level collaboration.
EQ from class, name, teacher name, date of tutorial.	Critical thinking about Initial question: should include all attempts at completing the question. Get information from your textbook, a reliable website, or your notes and include it here.		Reflection is written in complete sentences. All boxes are completed.	Your reflection includes your analysis, evaluation, or synthesis of the tutorial learning or how you can apply it in class or to your life.	Your questioning is beyond basic questions concerning the POC. For example: Can you compare this to another question? Can you apply that method to this problem?
Initial question taken directly from book, quiz/test/ notes etc. includes source, page # and problem written out.	Identify the process and steps you tried to complete the problem.		Resources include your books and/or notes from class.	Collaborative inquiry: you should be asking questions during the tutorial to help your fellow classmates understand their POC.
2 key vocabulary terms with the correct definitions written in complete sentences.	POC: is specific to the step where you became confused. It should include academic vocabulary.
2 statements about your question that tells what you know.					