Directions: Choose two activities each for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. Choose two dessert items to be completed only after the other meal tasks are done.

Breakfast
1. Create a PowerPoint that summarizes the story of the novel including the information from your story map and any other details you feel necessary to help the viewer understand your novel.

2. Invent a new cereal based on the book you read and design a cereal box that presents information about the story in a fun, creative way.

3. Write and illustrate at least 5 postcards about important characters, settings, and plot events in the story.

Lunch
1. Create a time capsule that includes artifacts that represent the main character(s) and plot events of the novel.

2. Create a quilt depicting symbols from the story and explain the significance of each.

3. You are a Newspaper Editor that has to select (create) three articles that detail the events of the novel for the front page of The Omaha Globe News. (You cannot do Dinner #3 if choosing this option.)

Dinner
1. Re-write your novel as a Children’s Book. Make it interesting and appropriate for a K – 2nd Grader!

2. Create a map that illustrates the important locations of your novel as well as what happened at those locations. It must be original work. Pre-printed maps are not allowed.

3. You are a television news reporter for GNN (Global News Network). Create a news report about the events of your novel to be performed live or video recorded. (You cannot do Lunch #3 if choosing this option.)

Dessert
1. There are various reasons why people choose to read novels. Create a persuasive commercial that shares all of the reasons why a reader might select your novel.

2. Perform a speech that shows/explains not only the story itself, but why you enjoyed the story. Explain what makes it a great story to read.

3. Re-write your novel as a Graphic Novel. Make it interesting and artistic!
